WEDDING DRESS CODE GUIDE

Valeriia & Kristijan

DRESS CODE

Observing the dress code is a sign of respect for the couple's special day. When guests embrace the dress code, a sense of harmony emerges that unites everyone into one shared story – a story that becomes part of memories for a lifetime.

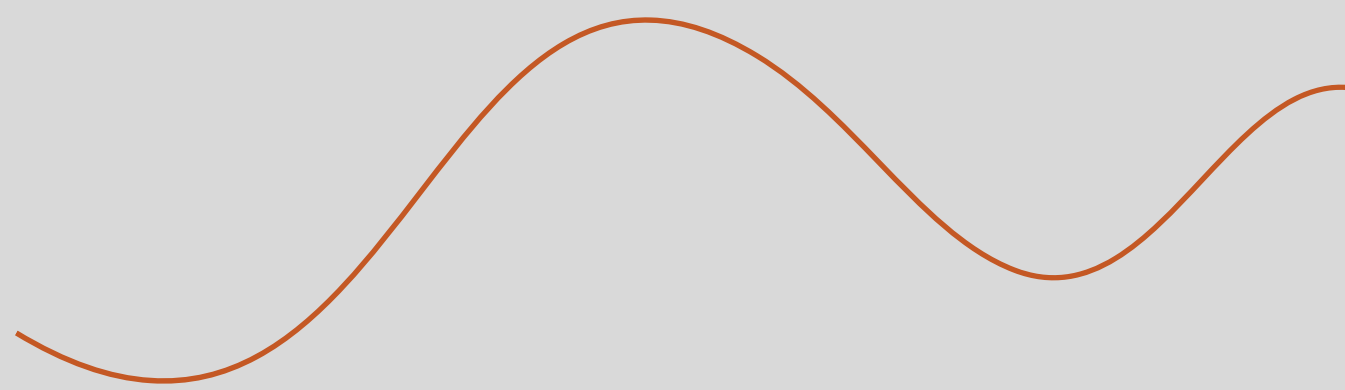

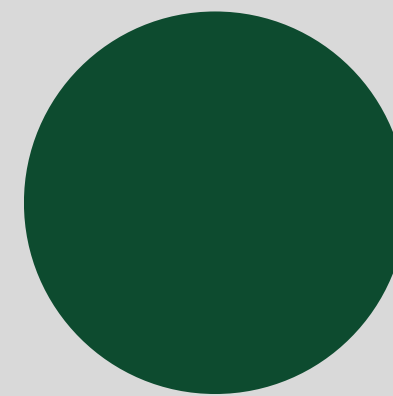

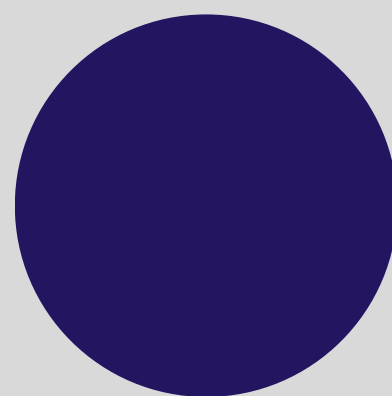

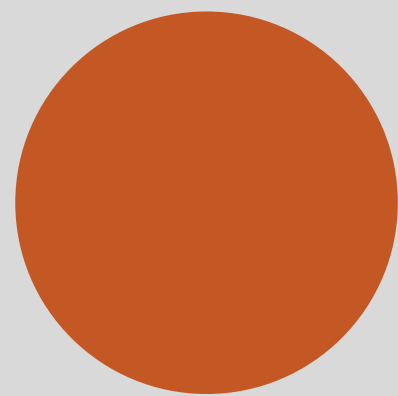

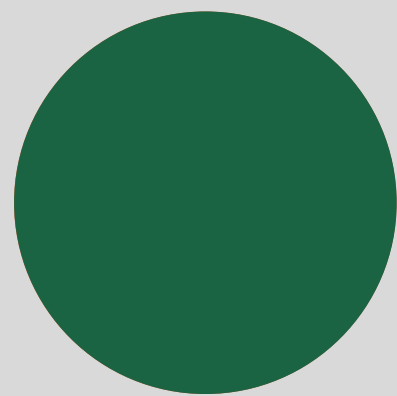

Let's create this incredible story together!

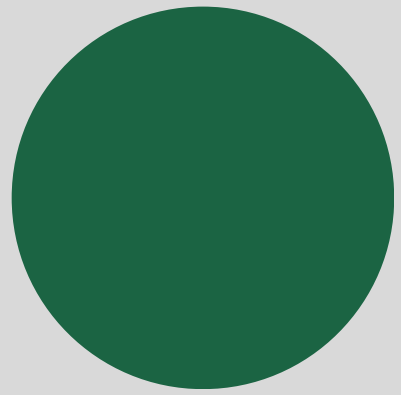

WEDDING COCKTAIL

A cocktail dress code for a wedding is a festive and refined style that combines elegance with a sense of ease.

The look should feel celebratory and appropriate for the occasion, while avoiding the level of formality associated with Black Tie.

COLOR PALETTE

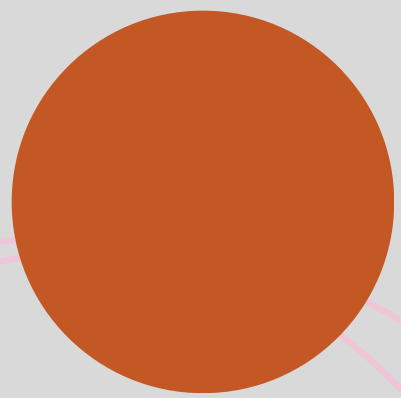

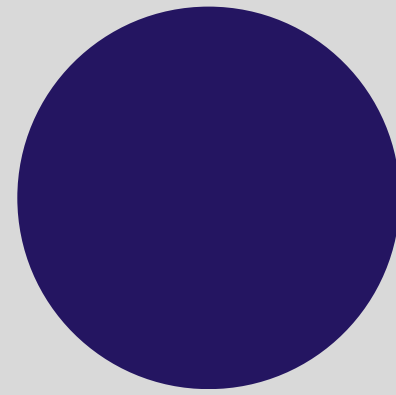

- Deep Malachite Green
(cool-toned, rich green without yellow undertones)

- Olive Moss Green
(muted, warm, natural shade, not bright lime)

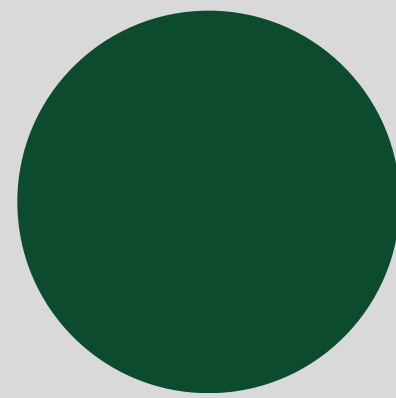

- Terracotta / Deep Pumpkin
(warm brick-orange tone, not red)

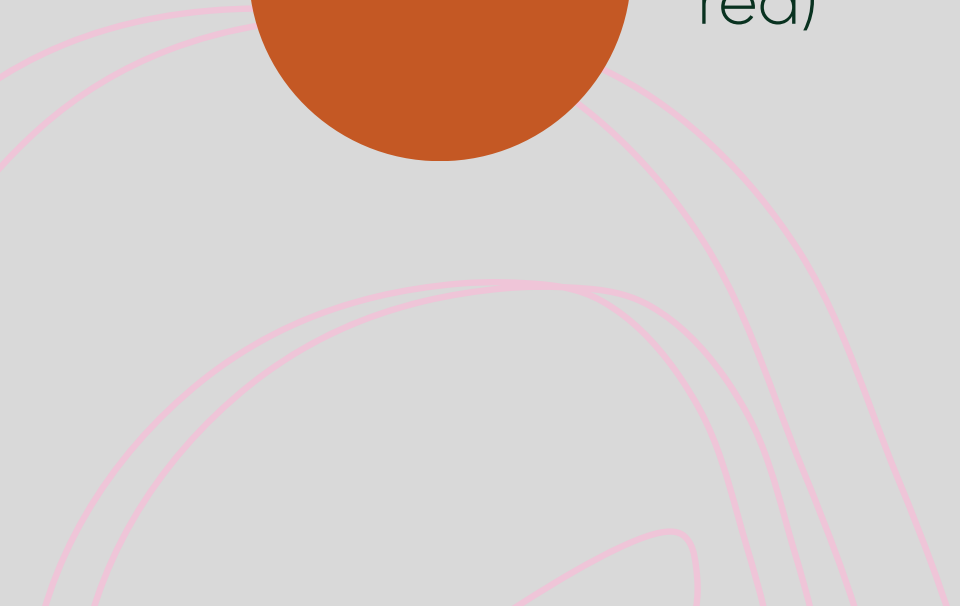

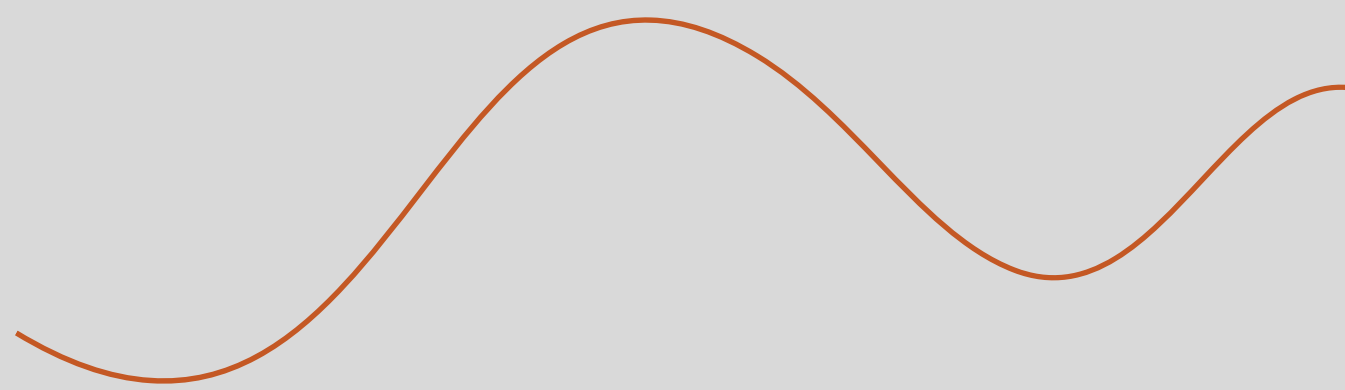

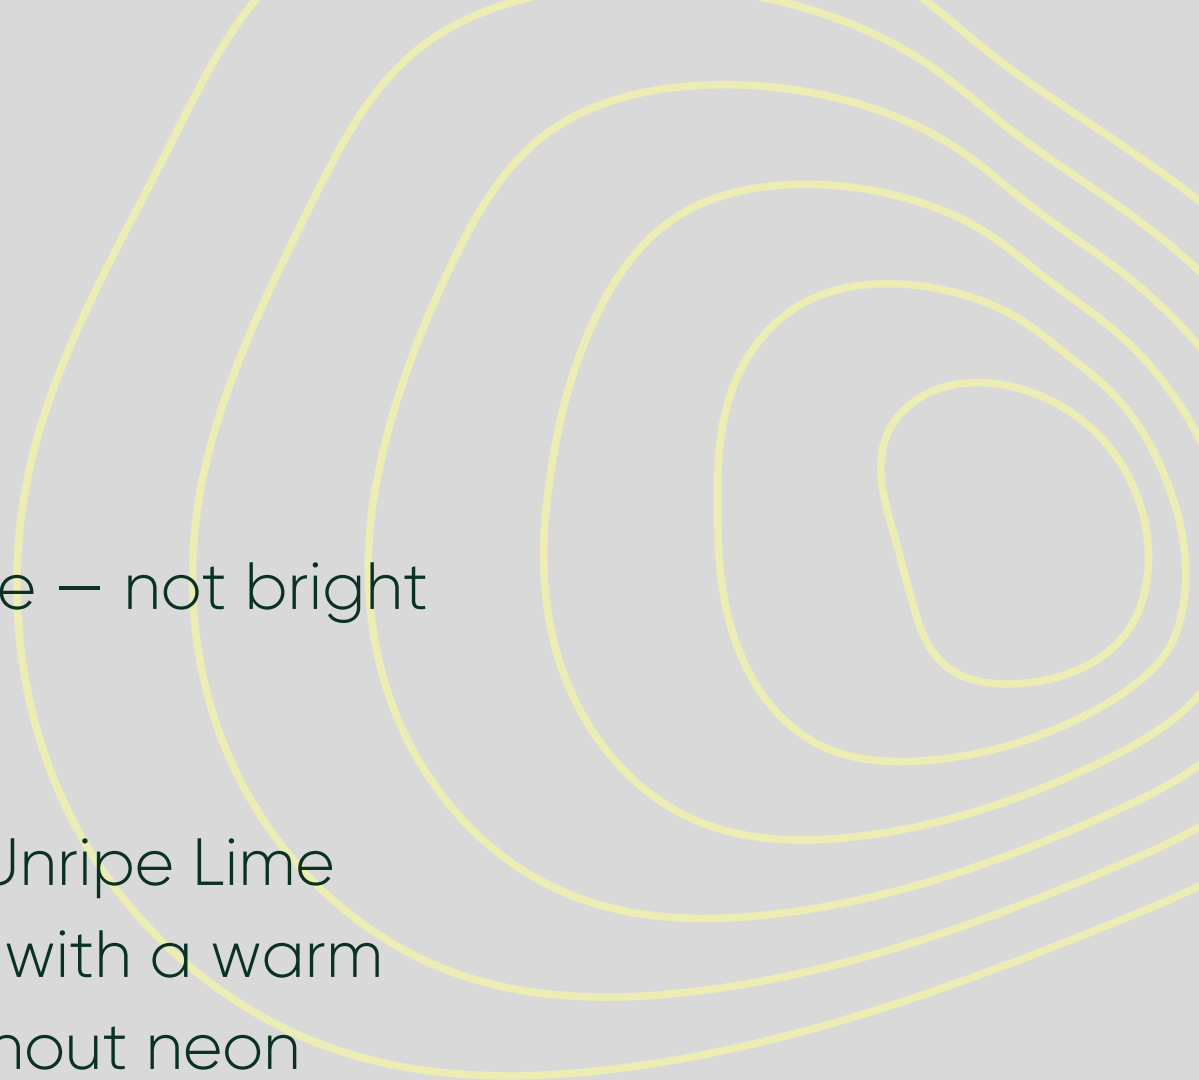

- Navy Blue
(deep, rich blue – not bright electric)

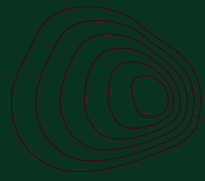

- Light Olive / Unripe Lime
(yellow-green with a warm undertone, without neon tones)

- Dark Forest Green
(deep conifer green, cool-toned, without a bright lime undertone)

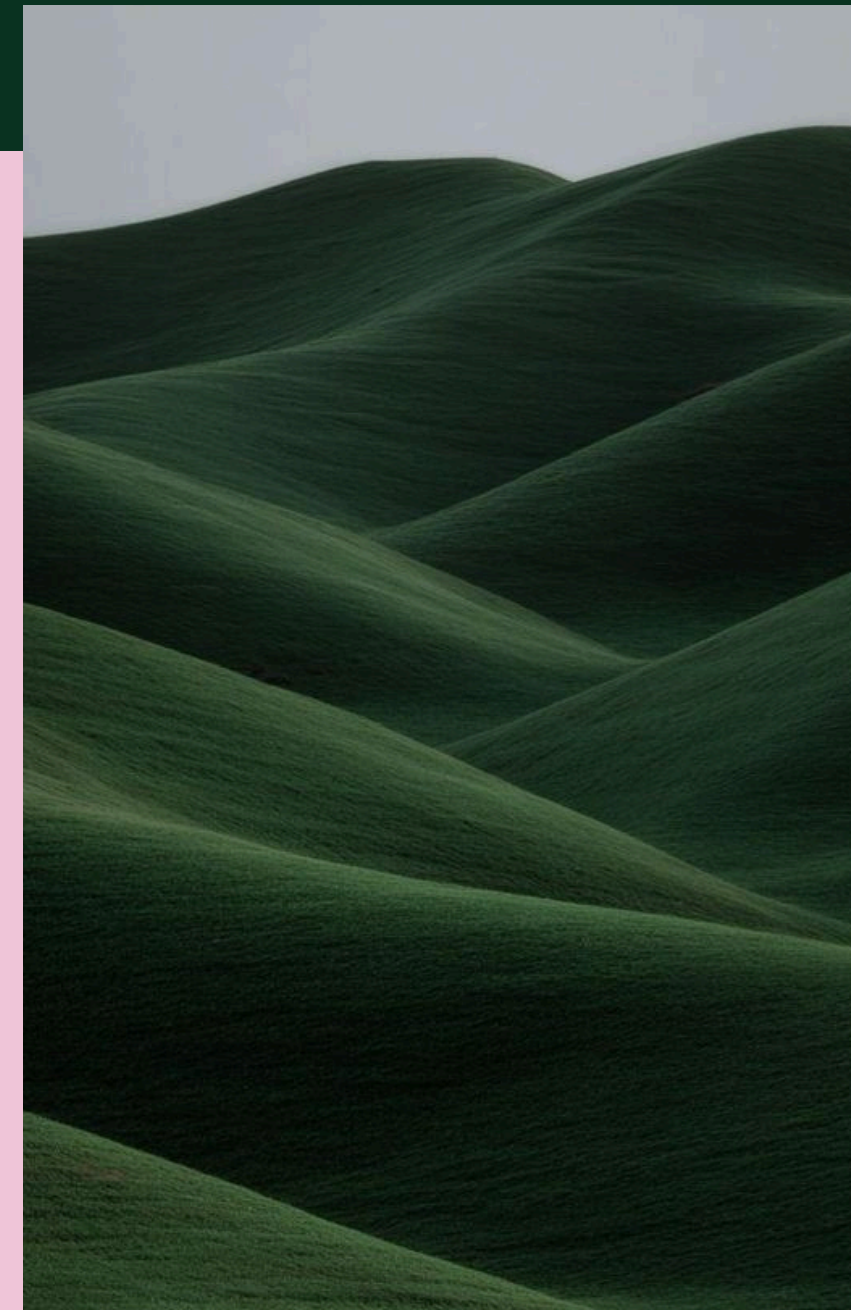

THE IMPORTANCE OF SHADES

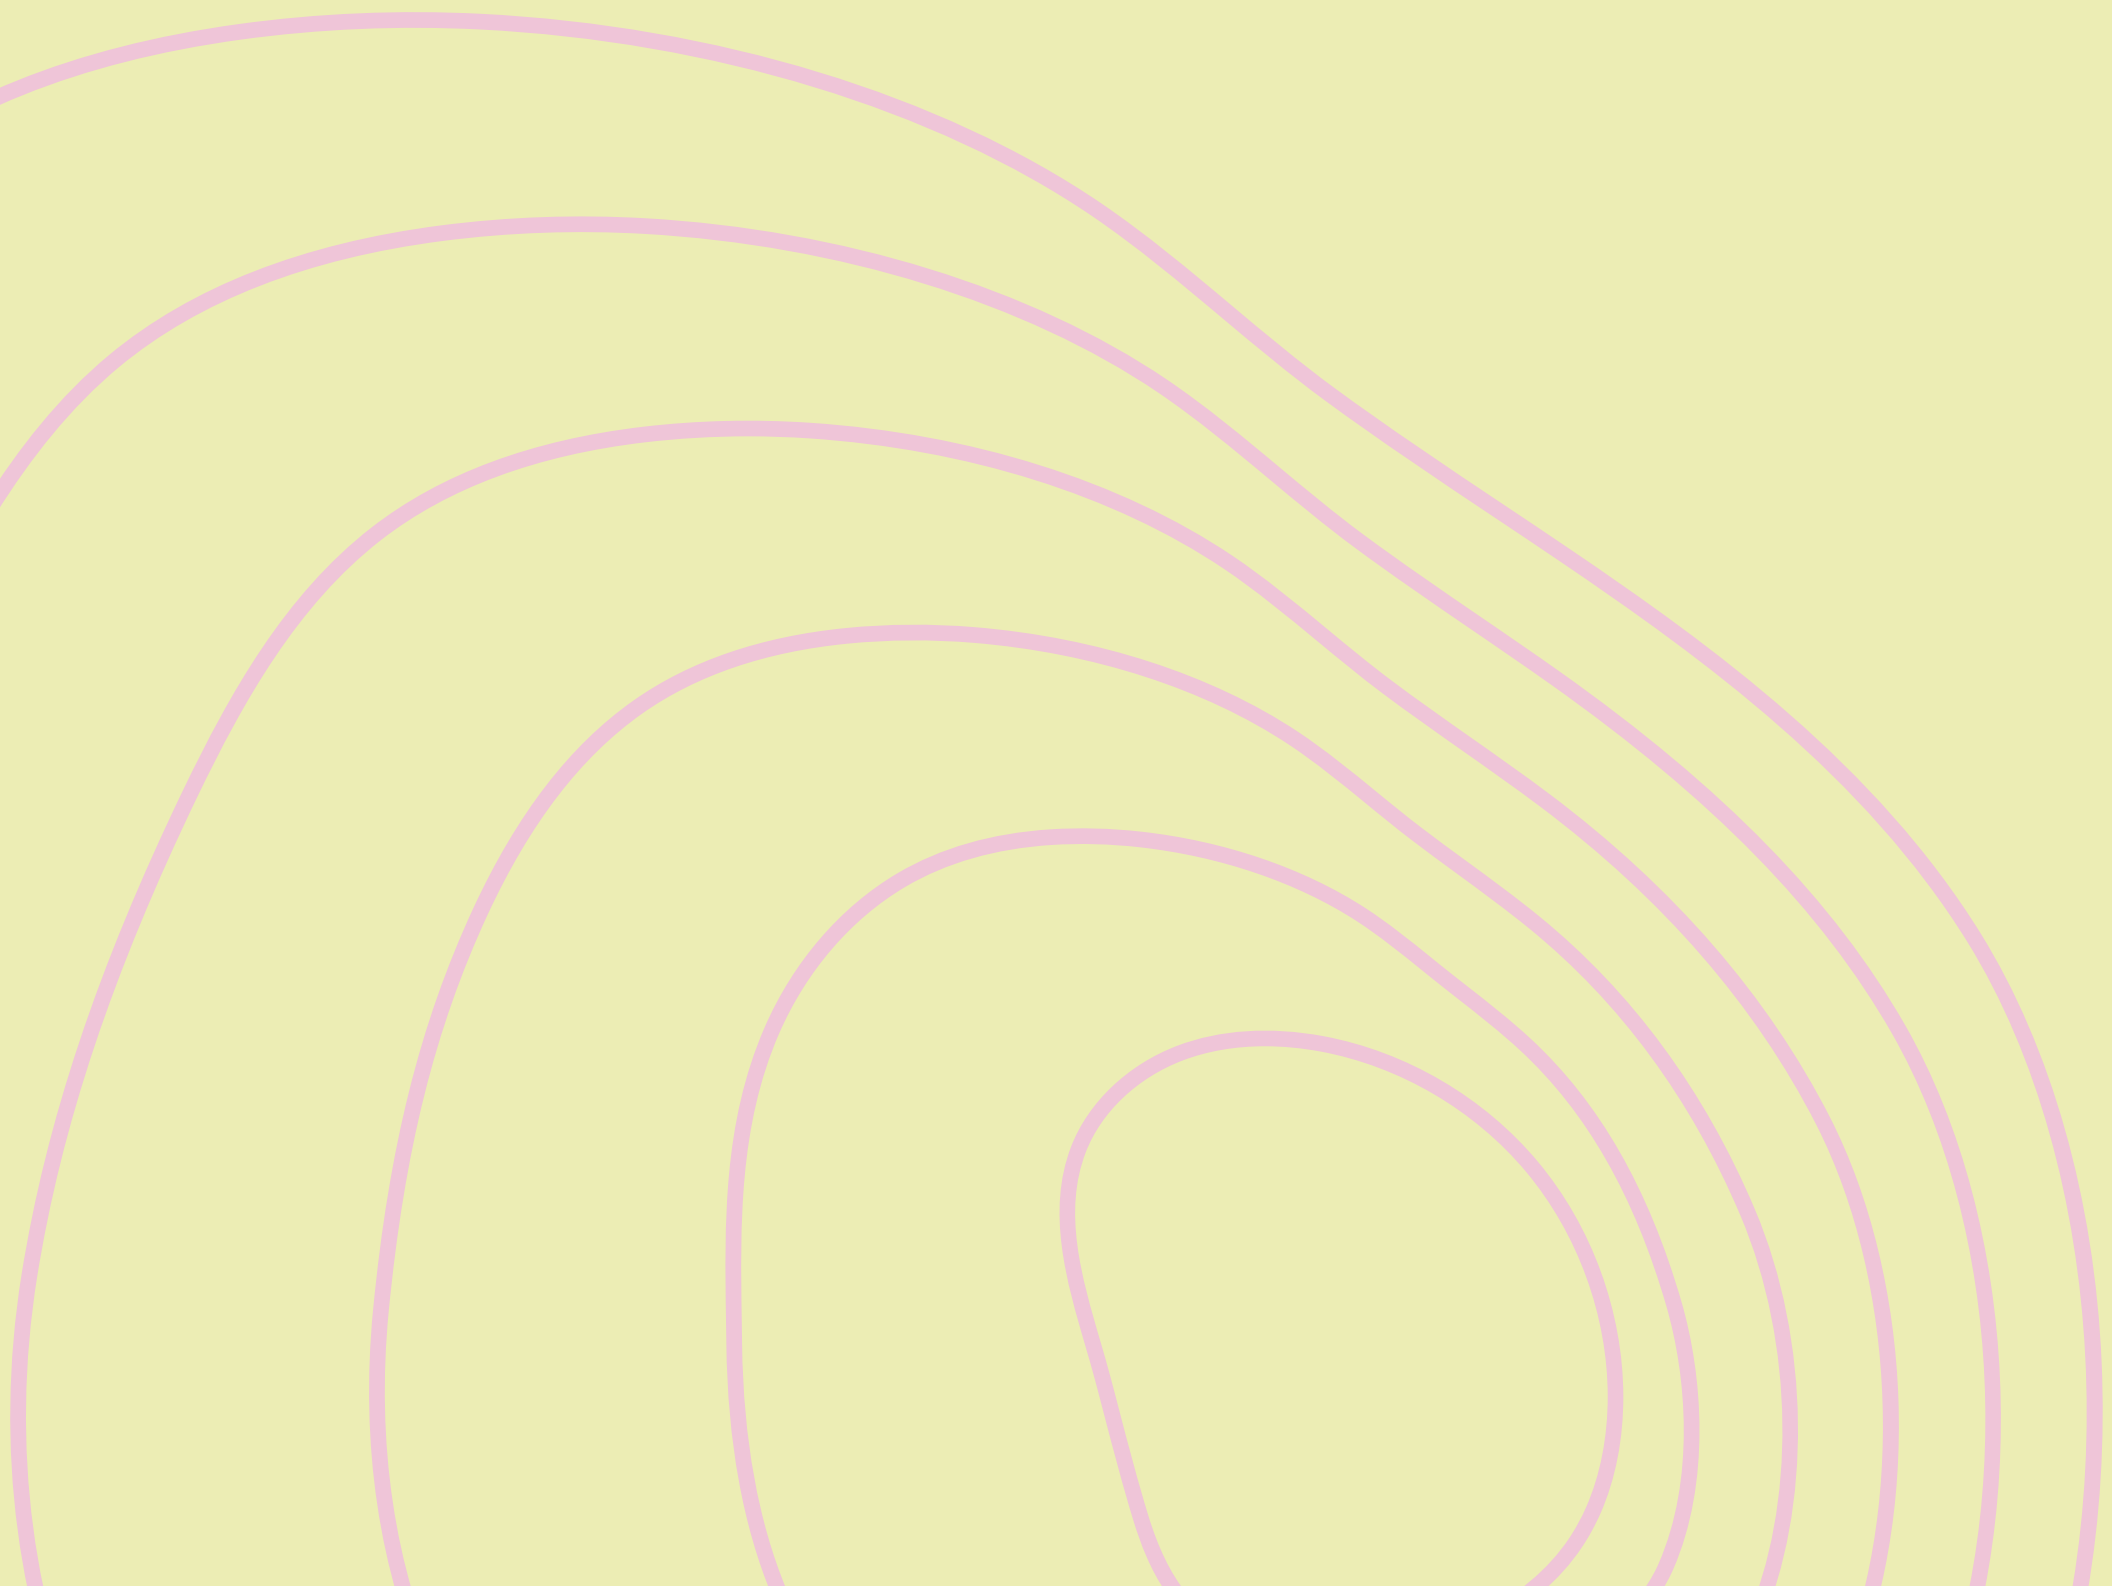

It is the exact shades that shape the aesthetic of the event.

Unripe lime is not a neon light green, malachite is not a bright green or grass green, and terracotta is neither yellow nor orange.

Choosing the correct tone is key to maintaining the cohesive style of the celebration.

DRESSES, DRESS ALTERNATIVES, FABRICS

Recommended dress lengths:

- Midi
- Below the knee
- Maxi

Mini is acceptable, but with caution:

- avoid overly tight silhouettes
- avoid deep necklines or high slits
- the fabric should feel festive rather than casual

Dress Alternatives:

1. Tailored Pantsuit:
 - made from suiting fabric or silk
 - styled with a feminine top or a silk blouse
2. Skirt Suit:
 - midi or maxi length
 - with a clean, elegant silhouette
 - made from suiting fabric or silk

Fabrics:

- silk
- satin
- crepe
- suiting fabric
- organza
- chiffon
- delicate jacquard
- lightweight atlas
- refined velvet

SHOES, ACCESSORIES, MAKE UP

Shoes:

- classic pumps
- heeled sandals
- slingbacks
- elegant mules
- heels of any height

Accessories:

- a small clutch or mini bag
- delicate jewelry
- subtle shimmer

Makeup:

- an even, softly radiant complexion
- light contouring
- a delicate blush
- a subtle highlight
- refined eyeliner or a soft smoky eye
- nude or pink-beige lips
- well-groomed brows

Focus on either the eyes or the lips (but not both at the same time).

WHAT IS DEFINITELY INAPPROPRIATE

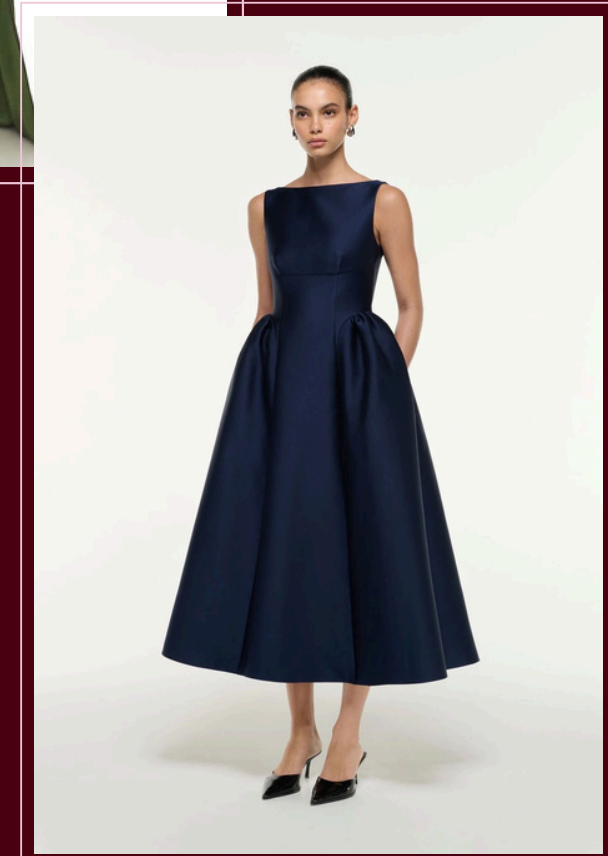

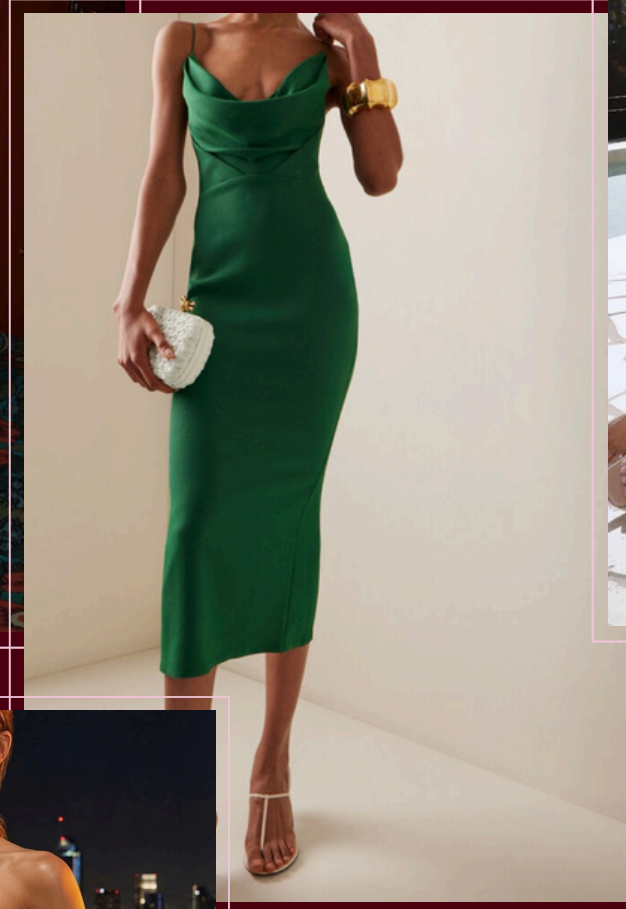

We kindly ask guests to refrain from looks that may disrupt the aesthetic of the event or compete with the bride's look:

- any shades of white, milky, or beige: white, ivory, milk, champagne, cream, light beige
- full light-toned outfits that may resemble an alternative wedding dress
- bright red or overly accent colors (including on the lips)
- black
- excessively short mini lengths
- deep necklines combined with high slits
- excessive shine, sequins, or glitter
- casual formats (jeans, knitwear, day dresses)
- sports shoes or overly chunky styles
- beachwear or club-style looks

We aim to create a harmonious atmosphere where every outfit supports the overall aesthetic of the celebration.
